3SI Security Systems Announces New Chief Revenue Officer

Malvern, PA, August 26, 2019: 3SI Security Systems, a world leader in innovative security technology, announced today the addition of Michael Chiavacci as Chief Revenue Officer. In this role, he will focus on the growth and revenue areas of 3SI including sales and channel management.

“2019 has been a busy year for 3SI” said Todd Leggett, CEO of 3SI. “It’s the perfect time for Michael to join us and capitalize on new opportunities, including our enhanced 4XG tracking solutions, our SafeBanker SaaS technology, the new display protection offerings through our partnership with Scorpion, and much more.”

“I am excited to join 3SI, a known leader in the security market” said Chiavacci. “With a strong foundation to build on, I’ll be looking to leverage our strengths to grow the business organically but also with our new strategic partners. There are so many opportunities for the innovative approaches 3SI brings to our customers.”

Chiavacci comes to 3SI with a broad range of industry experience in electronic and life safety products as well as building technology, aerospace and biotechnology. In his most recent role with United Technologies, he led a large global business unit to significant growth through innovative segment strategies, tactical product development, and focused engineering management.
